

JUDY HO

Ph. D., ABPP, ABPdN, CFMHE

Associate Professor of Psychology, Pepperdine University GSEP
Diplomate, American Board of Professional Psychology
Diplomate, American Academy of Pediatric Neuropsychology
Diplomate, National Board of Forensic Evaluators
1600 Rosecrans Avenue, MC Fourth Floor, Manhattan Beach, CA 90266
(310) 745-8887 * drjudyho@gmail.com
Board of Psychology CA License #22809

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Psychology, May 2001
University of California, Berkeley

Bachelor of Sciences, Business Administration, May 2001
Walter A. Haas Business School at University of California, Berkeley

Master of Sciences, Psychology, May 2004
San Diego State University

Doctor of Philosophy, Clinical Psychology, June 2007
San Diego State University and University of California San Diego School of Medicine

POSTDOCTORAL TRAINING

NIMH-Sponsored Fellowship at Semel Institute UCLA School of Medicine, August 2007-July 2010

AREAS OF EXPERTISE IN EXPERT WITNESS WORK

Conducts neuropsychological, forensic, independent medical evaluations and provides expert testimony regarding psychological testing methods, results, and conclusions for both civil and criminal proceedings. Commonly retained on cases involving 1) personal injury (including psychological/emotional injury and traumatic brain injury claims), 2) fitness for duty evaluations, 3) employment/discrimination/wrongful termination cases, 4) sexual assault, harassment, and trauma cases, 5) professional licensing disputes, and 6) assessment of competency to testify, risk assessment, and psychological state/functioning at time of criminal offense. Clinical areas of expertise including diagnoses of complex conditions including cognitive, psychological, and personality disorders, alcohol and substance use disorders, evidence-based assessment and treatment methods, clinical research methodologies, cultural factors in mental health evaluations and treatment, and psychological development and functioning across the life span.

CURRENT WORK

Clinical and Forensic Neuropsychologist, Private Practice, Dr. Judy Ho, Inc.
Tenured Associate Professor of Psychology, Pepperdine University
Chair, Institutional Review Board, Pepperdine University Graduate and Professional Schools
Clinical Researcher, Author, and Speaker (specific information available on full-length CV)
Consulting Neuropsychologist for multiple organizations (specific information available on CV)
Professional Service on Executive Boards and Examination Committees (specific information on CV)
Professional Affiliations and Memberships (specific information on CV)

LANGUAGES

English and Mandarin Chinese: fluent. Spanish: basic/conversational.